

Can you trust the USB stick you're about to plug into your network?

Use strong passwords

Keep passwords hidden

Don't click on untrusted links

Take care when using insecure networks

Don't leave computers unlocked

Cyber security is everyone's responsibility
Play your part in building a resilient organization

THE WORLD'S LEADING INSTITUTE FOR
CONTINUITY AND RESILIENCE

As another Business Continuity Awareness Week (BCAW) draws to a close, the Disaster Recovery Information Exchange (DRIE) Executives wish to thank you for your engagement and support. As we look to develop our 2018 program, we welcome your feedback, comments and recommendations. Please take a moment to complete the survey: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/JSR6WS7>

This year's BCAW theme was focused on Cyber Resilience – a key business risk for any organization. We hope you continue the discussion throughout the year. Share your learning, tips and advice to help each other improve our programs, our people and our industry.

We would also like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank our partners, presenters, members and volunteers.

We encourage you to check out DRIE and our Sponsor sites. Become a member of DRIE and continue the discussion year-round.

Continue to visit <http://toronto.drie.org/> for upcoming events and follow @DRIEToronto on Twitter.

Sincerely,

Joe Ozorio, President DRIE Toronto, and
Roma Chrobak, Special Events Director